A little while later I was surrounded with boys and was being brought home on my two brother s shoulders. When I got home my mother was so mad that I got a licking besides a gash in my leg from the fall. I think I had a good lesson for disobeying orders. PO A Disappointment The most disappointing experience that I can remember, is when I went to Eavina Park and sat on the pier all afternoon with a line and never caught any fish. We started for Eavina Park at ten o clock and got there about twelve o clock. As soon as we got into the park my sister said, O let s have something to eat. I said, I second...
