It was a lesson hard learned.never marry the ranch hand. Derrick Bodine was a mean drunk and a piss poor gambler. In two short years he drained her savings and put her so far into debt that she had to sell her ranch, but when he lost her prized thoroughbred on the cut of a deck, he went too far. Confronting him while he was drinking had been a mistake; however, she would be safe from him for at least the next five to seven years according to the judge. Now she could turn all her attention to the only thing that mattered to her.win back Wildfire from the unscrupulous man that took advantage of a drunken fool. The last thing Grayson Jessup needed was another fly in the soup. He had enough to worry about.suddenly saddled with a niece that has a chip on her shoulder the size of the Arizona sky, cattle shot in the middle of the night, veiled threats to the safety of the citizens of Rustler s Bend, tampered brake lines, the driver hospitalized and now a stranger shows up out of the blue. A beautiful stranger, but one with a hidden agenda that he was determined to discover.
