Excerpt: .turned out of the side aisles, and paused for a considerable time until this order was executed. Quiet having at length been restored, his Lordship turned again to those who were about being confirmed, and said that possibly they had not yet thought of the matter, and if so, they had better at once stand up and return home. None, however, did so, at which I thought the Bishop seemed displeased; and then I began speculating upon what would happen if he turned out all the candidates, and wondering how, after a long preparation by the Clergy, the offer he had made could be necessary; and so I lost the rest of his Lordship s discourse. The Dissenter winds up with some tolerably strong criticism upon the wholesale manner in which the Bishop laid hands upon those who were presented to him for the Sacrament. It may not be otherwiso than useful to put on record what is thought by outsiders of Church functions conducted as Confirmations too frequently are still by all but a few honourable exceptions.--Church Times. Natal.--The Treasurer of the Natal Church Fund (Cambridge Branch) has received a letter from Dean Green, dated Maritzburg, 21st December, 1869. The Dean writes: -- The prospects of the Church out here are certainly just now not to be described as gloomy. Of course there must be disappointments and anxieties, they are incidental to growth, bat there is a bright and favourable side We have...
